Community Development and Leadership

Did you know Community Development and Leadership is...

- A career that strives to address inequality, development problems, poverty and injustice in the country from a strengths based, people centred participatory perspective?
- A community oriented practice that demonstrates management and leadership knowledge and skills by bringing about change and transformation through the facilitation of techniques and principles of developmental projects and programmes, in partnership with relevant role-players towards sustainable development?
- A community oriented practice where community practitioners facilitate community members to become economically independent?
- A community based career for those who have the interest of people within their communities at heart?

So study towards a three year Bachelor of Community Development and Leadership with the Department of Social Work and experience our commitment to innovation, relevance, excellence, partnership and service. The department of social work is proud to announce its Bachelor of Community Development and Leadership Programme.

Career opportunities

The purpose of the Bachelor of Community Development and Leadership programme is to equip students with the knowledge, skills and values to practice community development in South Africa and in a changing regional and global context. Career opportunities: Government departments; Metro councils; Provincial councils; Local municipalities; Nongovernmental organisations (NGOs); Community based organisations (CBOs)

Post Graduate Opportunities

This is a new qualification and at this stage and only a BA qualification is offered. Postgraduate programmes will be developed within the next three years.
