DIRECTOR OF THE SCHOOL OF TOURISM AND HOSPITALITY (STH)

The reputation of the university where you will enrol will have a life-long impact on your career development. It is therefore of the utmost importance that you make an informed decision about your future.

The University of Johannesburg (UJ) counts amongst the largest residential universities on the African continent and strives to graduate informed, innovative, thinking and well-rounded leaders of our country and nation. Excellence and rich cultural diversity is part of its being.

The University's School of Tourism and Hospitality (STH) is in the Faculty of Management. The Faculty and STH' passion is to develop sought after, future-fit organisational leaders who create legacies. Given the number of highly successful alumni who graduated from the STH and who indeed created legacies in the tourism and hospitality industry, both nationally and internationally, our passion is also our reality.

The STH takes great pride in combining the rich traditions of more than 40 years of experience with cutting edge higher education. Our graduates are known for their skills, competencies and attributes that allow them to excel in the tourism and hospitality industry, which is one of the most dramatic growth industries in South Africa and world-wide. Our national and international partners also provide opportunities for the discerning individual.

We look forward to welcoming you to the STH community. Best wishes with your chosen career.
