

Ms Tumi Mketi is the Deputy Vice Chancellor: Employees and Student Affairs, and her portfolio entails the following functions: Human Resources, Student Affairs, UJ Sport and Institutional Planning.

She previously worked in the Public Service where she held various executive positions, ranging from Chief Director Human Resources to Deputy Director General, responsible for Performance Monitoring and Evaluation at the Department of Cooperative Governance. Her last public service job was at the Presidency, where she served as the Deputy Director General responsible for Institutional Performance Monitoring and Evaluation. This portfolio entailed the assessment of operational efficiency and effectiveness within national and provincial departments, using the Management Performance Assessment Tool (MPAT), Monitoring of service delivery at different government facilities and centers, Citizen Based Monitoring, Presidential Hotline, the coordination of strategic and annual performance plans across government, and the overall M&E Capacity Development within Public Service.

Tumi holds a Master of Business Leadership (MBL) degree (Unisa), Honours in Human Resource Development (RAU), Bachelor of Arts in Communication (Unibo), and Management Development Program (Wits).