

Mr Thabiso Mokoena

Name of Company: Media Information Communications Technology SETA

Qualifications Obtained:

BTech (Quality Management)

MTech (Operations Management)

Department: Quality and Operations Management

Year of Completion: 2013

Job title: Manager (Supply Chain Management)

Job description

Responsible for the management of SETA's sourcing strategy, demand management, procurement and integration processes, acquisition and compliance. Driving of high performance on service and support with a highly motivated SCM team.

- Overall Management of SCM processes including demand, acquisition, asset and integration.
- Continuous review of supply chain performance and optimization.
- Management of company internal procurements.
- Demand planning, analysis and improvements.
- National Non-conformities management.
- Development and Engineer of Business Requirements, Processes and Standard Operating Procedures.
- Project implementation and management.
- Communication of SCM policies, guidelines and objectives.
- Supplier performance management.
- Contract implementation and management.
- Provide strategic guidance and advice on SCM to internal and external stakeholders.
- Continuous SCM Reporting to senior management, oversight bodies, EXCO, MANCO, DHET, AGSA, National Treasury, etc.
- Efficient management of resources including budget.

“Be prepared to work very hard; be sure that this is the field you want to study in; try beginning with courses that are specialized in the industry to build a more focused career path; diversify your portfolio later if you want.”