
Philosophy of Medicine

Philosophical Perspectives on COVID-19 Programme

Monday 10 May

EST Pittsburgh	GMT +1 Cambridge	GMT+2 Joburg	Presenter	Title
06:55	11:55	12:55		Opening remarks
07:00	12:00	13:00	Jonathan Birch	Pandemics and the Precautionary Principle
07:30	12:30	13:30	Peter West-Oram	Reasonable Precautions? Exploring the Complexity of Duties to Avoid Causing Harm in a Pandemic
08:00	13:00	14:00	Daniel Cserhalmi Friedman and Dunja Šešelja	Scientific Disagreements, Fast Science and Higher-Order Evidence

08:30	13:30	14:30	Rachel Katz, Ross E.G. Upshur, and Maxwell J. Smith	Trust and global R&D in the Context of a Pandemic
09:00	14:00	15:00	Maxwell Smith	Should Equity Be Sacrificed in The Name of Speed in The Rollout of Covid-19 Vaccines?
09:30	14:30	15:30	Stephen John	Testimony, rationality, and Vaccine Hesitancy
10:00	15:00	16:00	Daniel Steel	COVID-19 and the Harm Principle: The Case of Mask Wearing
10:30	15:30	16:30	Prevan Moodley	Social Justice as Discursive Frame for the COVID-19 Vaccine in Online News Reports in South Africa (July 2020–March 2021)
11:00	16:00	17:00	Anthony P. Smith	Risk in the Time of COVID: Balancing Risk and Lives in the Pursuit of a COVID Vaccine
11:30	16:30	17:30	Mat Mercuri	If We Do Nothing: Pandemic Models and Lessons on Counterfactuals and Underdeterminism
12:00	17:00	18:00	Aaron Kenna	In Defence of The Oddsmaker View of Science- Lessons from COVID-19 modelling
12:30	17:30	18:30	Cristina Amoretti and Elisabetta Lalumera	Death-related Parameters in Epidemiological Models of COVID-19: A Philosophical Issue

13:00	18:00	19:00	Robert Northcott	Pandemic Modelling, Good and Bad
13:30	18:30	19:30	Piet Streicher	Epistemology and Modelling
14:00	19:00	20:00	M. John Lamola	Covid 19 Public Health Consciousness and the Technogenetic Posthuman Body
14:30	19:30	20:30	Zak Lakota-Baldwin	The Role of Expertise in Policy Decision-Making

Tuesday 11 May

(EST) Pitt	(GMT +1)	(GMT+2)	Presenter	Title
06:55	11:55	12:55		Opening Remarks
07:00	12:00	13:00	Tina Sikka	Andrew Feenberg and The Distorted Democratization of Technology: Covid-19 and the Case of Hydroxychloroquine
07:30	12:30	13:30	Barry De Coster	COVID Panic, and the Ethical & Epistemic Roles of Pharmacy: The Case of Hydroxychloroquine

08:00	13:00	14:00	Martin Zach and Gregor Greslehner	How to Think About the Immune System in Times of Covid-19 and Beyond: Why Stronger Isn't Always Better and Other Misleading Metaphors
08:30	13:30	14:30	Adrián Almazán	The Case for Ecological Medicine in a Post-COVID-19 World
09:00	14:00	15:00	Miriam Solomon	Should We Use EBM or EBM+ When Evaluating Evidence for the Effectiveness Of Covid-19 Therapies?
09:30	14:30	15:30	Michael Cholbi	Grief Justice and The Role of Medicine After Covid
10:00	15:00	16:00	Andrei Bepalov	Does Covid-19 Affect Public Reason?
10:30	15:30	16:30	Konstantina Antiochou and Stathis Psillos	How to Handle Reasonable disagreement: The Case of Covid-19
11:00	16:00	17:00	Rico Hauswald	Four Types of Uncertainty Facing the Translation of Science into COVID-19 Policy Measures
11:30	16:30	17:30	Merav Edout	The Fundamental Importance of Pathogen Origination in Public Health Policy Making
12:00	17:00	18:00	Lucie White, Mathias Frisch, and Philippe van Basshuysen	When is Lockdown Justified?

12:30	17:30	18:30	Maria Frahm-Arp	From Prosperity to Rest: COVID-19 and a New Worldview
13:00	18:00	19:00	Ashely Kennedy and Bryan Cwik	Diagnostic Justice and Testing for Covid-19
13:30	18:30	19:30	Sahar Joakim	Lessons from COVID: Utilitarian in Theory and Egoist in Practice
14:00	19:00	20:00	Victor Karl Magnússon	Lessons from Iceland: Experts, Democracy & COVID-19
14:30	19:30	20:30	Davide Vecchi and Giorgio Airoidi	A Possible Framework for Uncovering the Ethical Framing of Public Health Policies
15:00	20:00	21:00	Yael Friedman	Who Is the Biological Patient in the COVID-19 Pandemic?

Wednesday 12 May

(EST) Pitt	(GMT +1)	(GMT+2)	Presenter	Title
06:55	11:55	12:55		Opening remarks
07:00	12:00	13:00	Mark Bowker	Expressive Generics in Scientific Communication

07:30	12:30	13:30	Marina DiMarco and Helen Zhao	On Hype and Pandemic Science: Toward a Looping Account
08:00	13:00	14:00	Petra Brown and Tamara Browne	The impact of COVID-19: the vulnerabilities of women in a global pandemic
08:30-14:00	13:30-19:00	14:30-20:00	Individuals and Populations: Workshop in series Rethinking the Ethics of Vaccination (Cambridge HPS)
14:00-15:00	19:00-20:00	20:00-21:00	Social meetup on Gather

Thursday 13 May

(EST) Pitt	(GMT+1)	(GMT+2)	Presenter	Title
06:55	11:55	12:55		Opening Remarks
07:00	12:00	13:00	Jonathan Fuller	Three Questions about COVID-19 Epidemic Models
07:30	12:30	13:30	Herkulaas Combrink	Google Trends Associated with Lockdown Levels in South Africa During 2020

08:00	13:00	14:00	Elena Popa	Mental Health during COVID-19: Public Health Measures and Lived Realities
08:30	13:30	14:30	Simon Lohse and Karim Bschr	Against Myopic Expertise: Epistemic Pluralism in Public Health Policy
09:00	14:00	15:00	Break
09:30-11:00	14:30-16:00	15:30-17:00	Philosophy of Medicine on Covid-19: Panel Discussion (Philosophy of Medicine)
11:00-12:00	16:00-17:00	17:00-18:00	Social meetup on Gather	