

WOMEN'S MONTH CAREER JUNCTION

With WOZA Women In Law, SA Women Judges Making a Difference, Office of The Family Advocate Western Cape & the University of Johannesburg

FACULTY OF LAW

ANISA GOVENDER

Anisa has an LL.M in Maritime Law and has over 20 years' experience specializing in this area. She has extensive experience in several aspects of shipping law, particularly ship arrests, admiralty litigation, emergency marine casualty response, ship finance, regulatory and general admiralty advice, as well as ship and cargo sale and purchase.

Anisa is a member of the Maritime Law Association, of which she is the past secretary and served on the executive committee, the Durban Marine Insurance Forum, the South African Maritime Professionals Forum and an associate member of the Institute of Chartered Ship Brokers.

She previously served as the representative of the Maritime Law Association on the eThekweni Maritime Cluster and is currently the chairperson of the Maritime Law Association (Durban Chapter).

Anisa is a regular contributor to the Sunday Tribune on shipping related issues and is an external examiner for the University of KwaZulu-Natal's Shipping Law Unit.

