GALETLANE
RASETHABA
NPA

Advocate Rasethaba has been in the legal profession for over 30 years and was admitted as Attorney in 1990, and as an Advocate in 1996. She is a Governance and Risk Expert, having worked in Corporate SA for 10 years. She has extensive experience as an Attorney; having worked both as an Attorney and Advocate for plaintiff's and Defendants. She is a very courageous leader who influences, impacts and changes people's lives. She is a certified member of the John Maxwell Team as a Trainer, Coach, Teacher and Public Speaker. She is a Negotiator, Mediator and Arbitrator.

Advocate Rasethaba means business as a risk specialist and governance. As deputy to national director Shamila Batohi and head of the Asset Forfeiture Unit, she's in charge of getting high level corruption cases to court nationally and provincially and do it fast; her target is a list of 10 priority cases to be prosecuted by September 2021.
