

WOMEN'S MONTH CAREER JUNCTION

With WOZA Women In Law, SA Women Judges Making a Difference & the University of Johannesburg

LAURA MORWESI DLEPU
Co-Director-WOZA
Leadership NPC

Laura holds a BCom Law degree from the University of Pretoria with specialisation in Financial Accounting and Taxation. She also holds a Certificate in Property Development and Investment as well as an NQF Level 5 Tender Specialist Certificate. She is currently completing her LLB with the ambition to specialise in the field of Tax Law.

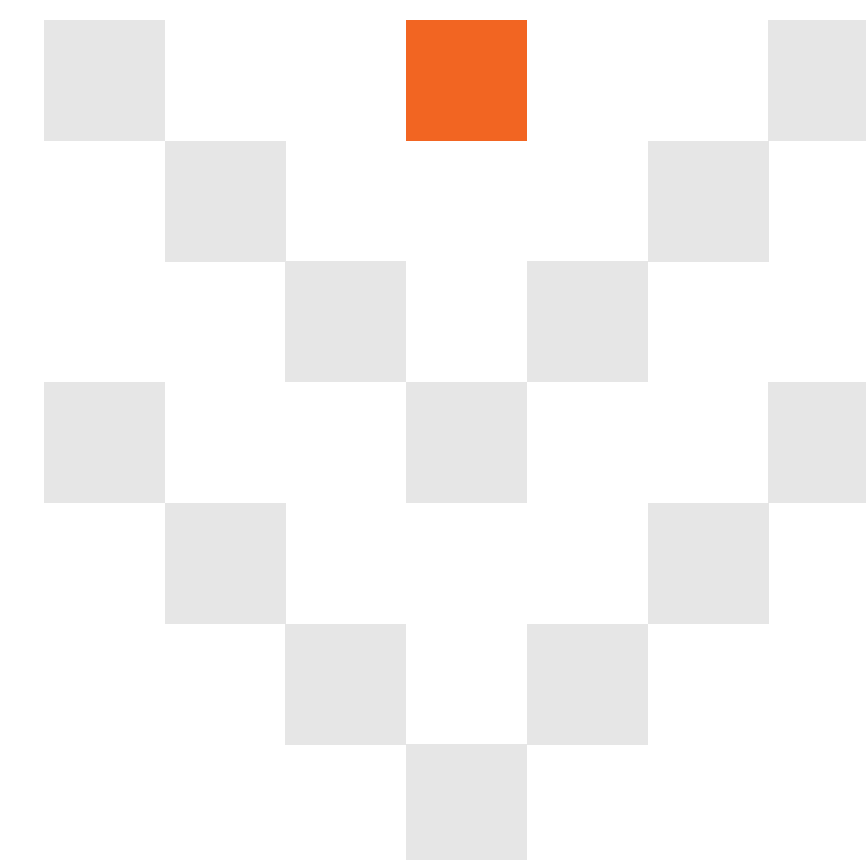

She is passionate about gender parity and representation in the legal profession and is committed to youth led leadership. She was a non-executive director of Progressive Women in Golf, an organisation that uses golf as a vehicle to teach young girls essential leadership skills such as networking, time management and personal mastery.

She is now a co-director of the WOZA Leadership NPC, under the banner of the Women in Law and Leadership Academy. At WOZA, Laura champions mental health and wellness, and skills diversity. As a co-director of WOZA she has contributed to the discourse of gender equality in the legal profession as a panelist during the Ananke Virtual Girls Summit 2020 in partnership with Women in Law Pakistan.

She currently works as the executive assistant to the directors of Molefe Dlepu Incorporated, a successful black-owned law firm with a 25-year history in the legal profession and has championed the transformation of the corporate identity and marketing of the firm and has also been part of the bid administration team compiling and submitting tenders.

FACULTY OF LAW

WOMEN IN LAW
& LEADERSHIP
ACADEMY