1. Doctoral Thesis

The Law Relating to Documentary Credits from a South African Perspective with Special Reference to the Legal Position of the Issuing and Confirming Banks LLD Dissertation University of Stellenbosch, (1996). (The publication of a limited number in 1997 was made possible by a grant from the Banking Law Research Unit attached to the Rand Afrikaans University in Johannesburg (as it was then known).) This was comparative research in which German, English, US and Dutch law was analysed in order to suggest approaches to different issues in SA law.

2. Contributions to Books

(iv) “The Law of Lease” together with Philip Simpson (of the Edinburgh Bar). This chapter forms part of a major treatise co-edited by Proff Reinhard Zimmermann (Max Planck Institut für ausländische und internationale Privatrecht, Hamburg), Kenneth Reid (University of Edinburgh) and Daniël Visser (University of Cape Town) in which South African and Scots private law is compared topic-wise.

(v) The chapter "Payment" in a work comparing in essence the mixed jurisdictions of Scotland and South Africa with the Principles of European Contract Law. The work was published in 2006 under the title European Contract Law: Scots and South African Perspectives as one of the Edinburgh Studies in Law edited by Proff Reinhard Zimmermann and Hector MacQueen.
