INFORMATION ON QUALIFICATION

The University of Johannesburg (UJ) offers the Bachelor of Technology in Logistics on a NQF level 7.

The programme is offered part-time on the Auckland Park Bunting Road Campus, and classes are currently offered twice a month on a Friday during the day.

CONTACT SESSIONS (Only in Johannesburg)

- Four subjects per semester, compulsory class attendance for each subject.
- Lectures consist of seven single full day workshops offered during the day per semester. This occurs approximately twice a month. Classes are thus twice a month during the day and students may need to obtain leave from their employees for these workshops.

DURATION OF QUALIFICATION

One year qualification.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

- National Diploma in Logistics, or a National Diploma in Purchasing from the University of Johannesburg and students should have a 65% average in their 3rd year majors.
- Students having a National Diploma in Logistics or a National Diploma in Purchasing from another university may be required to do certain Bridging subjects before commencing with the BTech Logistics degree. The Bridging subjects are offered full-time only.
- Students having a National Diploma in Retailing from UJ may likewise have to complete certain other subjects first before commencing with the BTech Logistics degree. Students who have completed the 2 year Diploma in Logistics cannot apply for the 4th year level BTech Logistics degree.
- Students having other National Diplomas such as Retailing, Operations Management, Quality, etc. may likewise have to complete certain other subjects first before commencing with the BTech Logistics degree.
- All applications are subject to selection criteria and the best possible candidates will be selected.

LEARNING PATH

Student who obtain an average of 65% or better in the BTech Logistics programme may apply to be accepted for the BCom Logistics Honours programme. Acceptance to this programme is however subject to normal selection processes.
