

We are unique, we are diverse and we are Geographers

Rume rhuwe harikombi churu (Shona). We cannot help everyone, but everyone can help someone.

Badimo ha ba re siela Leruo La lefatshe lena, Re mpa re le adimile ho meloko e tlang (Sesotho). We do not inherit the earth from our ancestors, we borrow it from our children.

Traditional British winter costume

Vhavenda

Basotho

Dipping apple in honey for the Jewish New year

Coloured

See to it that you do not spoil and destroy My world; for if you do, there will be no one else to repair it.

Midrash Kohelet Rabbah 1 on Ecclesiastes 7:13

We come as Jews and rabbis with great respect for what scientists teach us - for as we understand their teaching, it is about the unfolding mystery of God's Presence in the unfolding universe, and especially in the history and future of our planet.

A Rabbinic Letter on the Climate Crisis

Where we work

Elke donderwolk het 'n silwerrand (Afrikaans). Every cloud has a silver lining.

Mutsho a una swili (Tshivenda). Nature does not hurry yet everything is accomplished.

Longest place name in South Africa: Tewwbuffelsmeteenskootmorsdoodgeskietfontein