Short biography of Dr W.B. Vosloo, 1934-

Willem Benjamin Vosloo was born on 4 November 1934 in the Empangeni District, Natal. He matriculates at Vryheid and completes his Bachelors'- and Masters Degree, both cum laude, at the University of Pretoria, majoring in Political Studies and Economy. In 1965 he obtains his Ph.D. at Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y.

Work Experience:

- 1954-1955: Administrative Assistant, Deeds Office Pretoria
- 1956: Professional Officer, Department of Trade and Industry, Pretoria
- 1957-1962: Lecturer, Department of Political Science and Public Administration, University of South Africa
- 1963 Teaching Assistant, Department of Government, Cornell University, USA
- 1964-1965: Research Assistant, School of Business and Public Administration, Cornell University, USA
- 1966-1967: Senior Lecturer and Head of Department of Political Science and Public Administration, University of Stellenbosch
- 1968-1981: Professor and Head of Department of Political Science and Public Administration, University of Stellenbosch
- 1981-1995: Managing Director (Chief Executive) Small Business Development Corporation Limited

On his return to South Africa after 1965, Dr. Vosloo applied himself to the reformation process in the political, educational and economic arenas in the country. He became Professor and Head of the Department of Political Studies and Public Administration at the University of Stellenbosch. He served, inter alia, on two leading Commissions of Inquiry: the Erika Theron Commission on Constitutional Reformation and the De Lange Commission on the Restructuring of Education. He is the author of many publications on Management, Political Science and Development Economics. He is a founder member of the Political Association of South Africa, the South African Institute for Political Administration and the South African Institute for International Affairs. He received several academic awards and merit bursaries and delivered papers at various international conferences.

In 1981, Dr. Vosloo becomes the first Managing Director of the SBDC (Small Business Development Corporation). He received the following awards in recognition for his work:

- Marketing Man of the Year (1986),
- Man of the Year (Institute of Managing Consultants of South Africa, 1989),
- Emeritus Citation for Business Leaders (Sunday Star, 1990),
- Personnel Man of the Year (SA Institute of Personnel Managers, 1990),

- one of the Business Times' Top Five Businessmen (1993),
- one of the 21 Top Business Leaders in South Africa over two decades (Beeld, 1995).
- In December 1995 he received an honorary doctorate from the University of Pretoria.

At the end of December 1995, Dr. Vosloo retired as Managing Director of the SBDC and served as the Corporation's special consultant for strategic policy until September 1996. Since then he became involved in export marketing in the USA, Canada, Europe and Asia. He obtained permanent resident status in Australia in the category "Distinguished Talents" and eventually became an Australian citizen in 2002. He is now retired and resides in North Wollongong, NSW.

Collection summary:

Collection title: WB Vosloo SBDC (Small Business Development Corporation) documents

Collection Number (Identifier): B16

Creator (Compiler, author): Dr WB Vosloo unless otherwise indicated

Language: Afrikaans & English

Dates: 1980's to early 1990's

Physical description /extent: 9 linear metres of archival boxes and/or ring folders, covering the almost eighteen years during which Dr Vosloo was the Head of the SBDC. The documents give a unique insight into the South African political economy during the 1980's – early 1990's. It is valuable research material for disciplines such as Political Studies, Economics and Historical Studies. The changing relationship between the SBDC and the State is, for example, well documented.

Apart from the official SBDC documents, such as correspondence, training programmes and publications, the donation includes Dr. Vosloo's speeches, 1986-1995, as well as material on the small business policy and climate in foreign countries, e.g. Europe, Australia and the USA.

Access to collection: No restrictions. In-Library use only. Contact the University of Johannesburg Library: Special Collections at Doornfontein Campus.

<https://www.uj.ac.za/library/informationresources/special-collections/Pages/default.aspx>

Prior arrangements are not necessary before coming to the Library, however, patrons from out of town are encouraged to communicate with the Library in advance of their visits to ascertain availability of materials.

Photocopying/digital photography/scanning will be permitted only with the permission of the Manager, Special Collections by signing the appropriate form.

Acquisition information: The collection was donated to the Rand Afrikaans University (RAU) during June 2000 by Prof. Ben Vosloo before he immigrated to Australia.

Historical note: In 2005 RAU merged with VISTA University in Soweto and the Technikon Witwatersrand of Johannesburg to become the University of Johannesburg (UJ.)
