

Barotseland: Eight years among the Barotse by Strike (D.W.)

(SBV3 968.94 Stri)

Published: John Bale, Sons & Danielsson Ltd. London, 1922

Edition: 1st

Description:

It has an introductory chapter by Sir Harry Johnstone who was once an H. M Commissioner for Northern Rhodesia. The book is about the origins, laws, riddles and songs of the Barotse. It has an image of the late paramount chief of the Barotse nation, Lewanika and a skull of an ancient North Rhodesian type of man referred to as the Homorhodesiens (photograph by Dr Smith Woodward). The illustrations of the genealogical descent of the royal blood family and a map of Portuguese West Africa are also included in the book.

CONTENTS.		PAGE
Preface by the Author	... ..	v
Introductory Chapter by Sir Harry Johnston	... ..	I
CHAPTER I.
The Barozi and their Origin	... ..	37
CHAPTER II.
The Administration of Barotseland	... ..	42
CHAPTER III.
Native Administration	... ..	46
CHAPTER IV.
Barozi Industries	... ..	55
CHAPTER V.
Customs (Mikwa)	... ..	61
CHAPTER VI.
Riddles and Conundrums	... ..	80
CHAPTER VII.
Barozi Songs and Dances	... ..	85
CHAPTER VIII.
Barozi Legends	... ..	93
CHAPTER IX.
Barozi Laws	... ..	108
CHAPTER X.
General	... ..	115

ix

Chief Lewanika

Our library also offers books on Barotseland that include:

- Elites of Barotseland 1878-1969: a political history of Zambia as Western Province Level 3 (320.968 SHAR)
- Trade and travel in early Barotseland (SBV3 968.94 TABL)
- Barotseland journal of James Stevenson- Hamilton 1898-1899 (SBV3 968.91 OPPE STEV)

Ancient skull of Homorhodesiens