

2018 STUDENT FINANCE PROCESSES

NSFAS students

- NSFAS continuing students – these are all students who were funded in 2017. NSFAS will automatically fund the students in 2018 provided that they progressed well academically. The students were unblocked for registration. Please note that this will exclude students who are enrolling for post graduate studies in 2018
- NSFAS Continuing students with outstanding debt – students will be required to sign an acknowledgement of debt before registration. No upfront payment on outstanding debt will be required
- New First Time entering – These are students who have applied to NSFAS for the first time in 2018 academic year. The students will receive NSFAS outcome before the 20th January 2018. Communication will be sent to all approved students.
- 2017 Late applications – Students who were advised to apply for NSFAS in November 2017. The students will be informed before 30th January 2018
- First year at UJ but did not apply for NSFAS – UJ will send a consent information request to the parent/guardian/students. A financial income verification process will be undertaken and consideration will be given to the students whose family income is less than R350 000.00. Students are required to pay the minimum registration fee whilst the verification process is undertaken

Cash Paying Students – (Not funded by NSFAS or Scholarship)

- Continuing students with outstanding debt – students will be required to pay 50% of the outstanding debt and minimum registration fee prior to registration.
- Continuing students without outstanding debt – students will be required to pay the full minimum registration fee – no arrangements are allowed on the minimum registration fee
- New students – students will be required to pay the minimum registration fee upfront before registration

Trust Fund students

- Trust fund will only pay the minimum registration fee of R3 870.00 for all students, and R2600.00 for residence where applicable. Students are responsible to pay the outs. debt.
- Trust Fund Continuing students – these are students who were awarded trust fund in 2017. The students will automatically be unblocked for academic registration, provided that they have met the 60% academic criteria
- New trust fund students with an outstanding debt (Senior students) – these students are required to pay a 50% upfront on the outstanding debt
- New trust fund students (First year students) – Trust fund will pay the minimum registration fee. Students will be responsible for the outstanding debt

International students

- All international students with an outstanding debt are required to pay the settle the debt and pay 30% registration fee before registration
- Acknowledgement of debt does not apply to international students