

RESUME

Professor Daneel van Lill

Daneel is a teacher and researcher with a deep-rooted affection for talent management. This is evident in teaching, learning, research, and academic citizenship and leadership illustrated as former Director: UJ School of Tourism and Hospitality (2007 – 2009), as Executive Dean: Faculty of Management (2010 to 2016), and as Executive Dean: College of Business and Economics (2017 to date).

The CBE is an exceptionally large organisation within UJ in terms of enrolment (27 000 students), academic rigour, the annual graduate output of some 5400 graduates, international standing (Top Three in Africa across disciplines), and an annual turnover of about R1,5 billion.

Daneel has graduated from the University of Stellenbosch with a BSc (1983), BSc Honours, MSc (cum laude), and a PhD (1990). He is now studying for an MPhil (Leadership Coaching).

His scholarly contribution centres on making sense of sector-based, transformational strategic change. His academic career is marked by 12 professional awards for exceptional accomplishment among which are the Ernest Oppenheimer Memorial Trust Senior Fellowship and a Vice Chancellor's Distinguished Award for professional and academic excellence.
