

New Classic (Five Volume set 1975-1978) edited by Sidney Sepamla (SBV 3 828.9963 NEWC)

Published: New Classic Publications, Johannesburg, 1975-1978

Edition: 1st

Description:

A set of a South African quarterly magazine, New Classic, from 1975 to 1978. Edited by Sidney Sepamla, the journal showcased Black South African writers and was the successor to the Classic Magazine. Sepamla was "the first black person to edit and manage a literary magazine in South Africa." The essays in New Classic do not focus on the knowns, but rather examines questions of literature and communication, the writer's freedom, the position of black writers in South Africa as well as the nature and use of oral literature. The magazine features writers such as Bessie Head (1937- 1986), Serote, Mtshali (1946-), Richard Rive (1931- 1989) and Nadine Gordimer (1923- 2014).
