

POSTGRADUATE REGISTRATION INFORMATION 2023

Dear UJ Student,

Please take note of the following important information and dates for the 2023 academic year.

1. COVID-19 RELATED INFORMATION

UJ has a vaccination policy in place, which can be found on the UJ website. The UJ Council approved the relaxing of some of the Mandatory Vaccination Policy stipulations and Implementation Protocols. Should there be an adverse effect in the risk to our staff, students, and third parties, the University may be required to reinstate the suspended measures.

2. ONLINE REGISTRATION

PLEASE NOTE: THIS LETTER PROVIDES INFORMATION ON REGISTRATION AND IS NOT AN ADMISSION LETTER.

Registration commences on 16 January 2023 until 10 February 2023 (only online, off-campus registration will be allowed).

You will only be able to register off-campus. The University cannot guarantee your place if you do not register on/or before the closing date of registration. Note that the registration dates may be adjusted in which case such detail will be published on the UJ website.

Students who have only second semester modules that are outstanding will still be required to register during the registration period in January 2023. Kindly access registration information at <https://www.uj.ac.za/admission-aid/registration/> and follow the step-by-step guide.

Students may not attend lectures for a programme or module if they are not registered for it. Similarly, no student may receive postgraduate research supervision unless they are formally registered for the research module and programme.
