

Roger Haitengi

Roger Nikanor Haitengi is a Namibian athlete specializing in the triple jump. He won his first major medal, a bronze, at the 2014 African Championships. His personal best in the event is 16.80 metres, set in Windhoek in 2010. This is the current national record.

With over 9 years as the UJ athletics manger/coach Roger has also given back to the sport by influencing and producing Olympian athletes at UJ, that he coaches.

Having the following honours in his career and still:

- 1 x African Championships Bronze medalist
- 1 x Top 8 at Commonwealth Games
- 3 x Top 8 at All-African Games
- 5 x Top 8 at African Championships
- 2 x National champion