

Sarah Mukuna

Director Member Associations

Confédération Africaine de Football

Giza, Egypt

Born and raised in Germany by Congolese parents, Sarah is a football administrator and currently the Director of Member Associations at the Confederation of African Football (CAF), where she is in charge of the relationship management of all 54 Member Associations / Federation in Africa. In her role she oversees Governance and Financial Governance challenges of these Association and directs the newly created African School Programme launched by CAF Presidents Dr. Patrice Motsepe in 2022. Next to that, she oversees CAF Capacity Building initiatives across the African Football.

Previously, Sarah worked in two different roles for FIFA, last as Financial Governance Manager in the Member Association Department and before that as Event Controller as Business Partner for the project leaders for the FIFA World Cups Tournaments and FIFA Events, such as the FIFA Congress or the Best FIFA Football Award.

Sarah is a multicultural person with previously acquired experience within the Big 4 Firms at PwC and Deloitte. Sarah holds an MBA in Sport Management from Real Madrid Business School and a Master Degree in Accounting and Management from the University of Southampton in the United Kingdom. People who worked with Sarah says that she is team oriented, self-motivated with excellent interpersonal skills.

Even when working under pressure or faced with challenging situations, she remains capable of adapting to change, commendably calm and assured.