

The Research Capacity Development Unit in collaboration with the Faculty of Humanities invites you to an Academic Misconduct Awareness Workshop.

Date: 23 June 2022

Time: 10:00- 11:30

Facilitators: Dr. Letitia Smuts and Prof. Maritha Pritchard

Platform: Blackboard Collaborate

Click here to register: <https://forms.office.com/r/0je9ssuPrs>

In the session, we will focus on:

- An overview of what plagiarism is.
- Present anonymous case studies and results/outcomes thereof
- Discuss successes and challenges pre-covid
- Discuss successes and challenges post-covid
- Present prevention methods for students and academics
- Q & A session.

For enquiries email supervisioncourse@uj.ac.za

About the facilitators:

Letitia Smuts is a senior lecturer in the UJ Department of Sociology. She has been teaching research methodology on postgraduate and undergraduate levels for over 10 years. She is a Desmond Tutu scholar who completed her PhD at the Vrije University in the Netherlands. She is also the grant holder of a NIHSS-funded research project on heteronormative and gender normative views in higher education institutions called 'FruSTRAlGhting the Norm'. Dr Smuts currently serves on the Teaching and Learning Committee, as well as the Ethics Committee, of the UJ Faculty of Humanities.

Prof Maritha Pritchard is an Associate Professor in the Department of Strategic Communication. Her published research interest is teaching and learning pedagogies, and digital media. She has presented on these topics at several local and international conferences. She is the recipient of the Vice-Chancellor's Distinguished Award for Teacher Excellence in 2021.