

INVITATION

The DHET-NRF SARCHI Entrepreneurship Education Chair, in collaboration with the Department of Business Management, cordially invites you to a webinar with the topic:

ENTREPRENEURIAL REALITIES IN SOUTH AFRICA: POLICY AND PRACTICAL IMPLICATIONS

The Global Entrepreneurship Monitor (GEM) report is regarded as the world's foremost study of the current status of entrepreneurship and is conducted annually in 49 countries. The webinar unpacks the latest findings from the GEM South Africa report, highlighting entrepreneurial realities in the country. The webinar also explores the impact these findings have on both policy and practice. The Webinar is facilitated by Professor Chris Schachtebeck.

DATE Thursday, 11 April 2024

TIME 12:00 - 13:00

WEBINAR To join the webinar click HERE

Professor Chris Schachtebeck

An Associate Professor in the Department of Business Management. He is an NRF Y-rated researcher and specialises in intrapreneurship and SMME development.

DISCLAIMER: The host will record and photograph this webinar for reference and internal and external marketing, social media, and media purposes. By attending this event, you grant the University of Johannesburg permission to use and publish any recorded and photographed material.

SARCHI
ENTREPRENEURSHIP
EDUCATION

PANELISTS:

Professor Daniel Meyer

A Professor in the CBE and an NRF rated researcher. Daniel is a Development Economist and a specialist in regional and local economic development analysis and policy development.

Professor Patient Rambe

A Research Professor and Director of the Centre for Enterprise and Entrepreneurship Studies in the Faculty of Management Sciences (Central University of Technology, Free State). He is an NRF C-rated researcher specialising in digital entrepreneurship, technology entrepreneurship, and small entrepreneurial firms

Professor Natanya Meyer

An Associate Professor in the Department of Business Management/SARCHI in Entrepreneurship Education, in CBE. She is a NRF Y-rated researcher. Her research focuses on entrepreneurial and economic related topics with a focus on females, youth and the enabling environment.

Professor Chux Gervase Iwu

A Professor of Entrepreneurship Management and Chair of Entrepreneurship in the Faculty of Economic and Management Sciences of the University of the Western Cape. His research interests include but are not limited to, employee empowerment, business management and information systems