

Philosophy Through Indigenous Knowledge in the Global South

African Centre for Epistemology and Philosophy of Science
9-10 October 2023 | <https://zoom.us/j/94251995897>

Programme

Monday	9th October (All times are in SAST/GMT +2:00)
09:30-11:00	Keynote: Rukmini Bhaya Nair (Indian Institute of Technology) – Refocusing the Imagination: Keyword Communities, Bystander Cultures and Postcolonial Commitments
11:00-11:30	Tea
11:30-12:30	Mongane Serote (ACEPS) – The African Primary – an IKS Institution
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-14:30	Nomswazi Kubeka (ACEPS) – Linguistic Justice as an Epistemic Reparation
14:40-15:40	Richard Mwamba (ACEPS) – The search for a model of the epistemic decolonisation of the university
15:40-16:00	Tea
16:00-17:00	Harry Wilson Kapatika (ACEPS) – AIKS: Between Circumscribed Epistemicide and Reinscribed Ethnoepistemology
Tuesday	10th October
09:30-10:30	Elias Konyana (Great Zimbabwe University) – Local solutions for glocal challenges: A case for Philosophy and Indigenous Knowledge
10:30-11:00	Tea
11:00-12:30	Keynote: Peter de Souza (prev Dir Indian Inst. of Advanced Study) – Ideas for Swaraj
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-14:30	Siseko Kumalo (University of Fort Hare) – Outlining a Decolonial Methodology Using the Black Archive
14:40-15:40	Abraham Tobi (ACEPS) – A Decolonial Approach to Medical Expertise

Inquiries: tobitejiri@gmail.com

ACEPS: <https://www.uj.ac.za/aceps>

Organisers: Veli Mitova, Abraham Tobi, Nomswazi Kubeka, Harry Wilson Kapatika

Funding: National Institute for the Humanities and Social Sciences

