

UNIVERSITY
OF
JOHANNESBURG

Department of Information and
Knowledge Management
School of Consumer Intelligence and
Information Systems

Continuing Education and
Short Learning Programmes

Contemporary Knowledge Management
Techniques

College of Business and Economics

SHORT LEARNING PROGRAMME (SLP)

Contemporary Knowledge Management Techniques

The purpose of this SLP is to equip students to have the knowledge and skill to identify the different elements of Knowledge Management (KM) within their work environment. Students will have been exposed to the necessary competencies and skills to formulate a knowledge strategy and promote a knowledge sharing culture through the use of Communities of Practice and knowledge cafés.

Admission requirements:

- National Senior Certification (NSC)-NQF level 4 OR Senior Certificate (SC) (before 2009)-level 4
- The SLP is offered online over a three-week period. 8hrs x 2 days one week for 2 weeks and 9hrs x 2 days one week to make 3 weeks
- The SLP is offered in both the first and second semester

Programme outline:

- Importance of and drivers of Knowledge Management
- Corporate culture as foundation for successful Knowledge Management
- How to create a knowledge sharing culture through various tools and techniques
- Conducting a Knowledge Audit
- Steps to formulate a Knowledge Strategy
- Measuring the current Knowledge Management state of the organisation and determining a Knowledge Management course of action

On completion of the programme, students should be able to:

- Identify the importance of and drivers of Knowledge Management
- Integrate corporate culture as foundation for successful Knowledge Management
- Harness key success factors when managing knowledge assets

For more information: Please contact Mrs Deidre Wessels: 011 559-2183 email: infoman@uj.ac.za

Ready to apply?

Visit the UJ homepage www.uj.ac.za and click on Study@UJ to apply for this qualification. All applications are done online.

Cost: Please contact Mrs Deidre Wessels (011 559-2183) infoman@uj.ac.za for any queries related to the costs of this qualification.

