DFL, as well as at other sites in Johannesburg, hosted various poetry audition slams and the Johannesburg regional finals at UJ during August 2011. Over 60 UJ students submitted their poems for the competition, and then attended poetry workshops led by DFL. The winner of the Johannesburg regional finals was a UJ student. A LINK member from APB recited her poem as a special guest appearance. The national poetry finals were subsequently held on 2 September 2011 at the Wits Theatre and 200 people attended the event. One of UJ's APB students received the second prize in this competition.
THEMBA interactive	Themba Interactive, in association with Drama for Life (DFL), equips the LINK with methodologies in the form of theatre to creatively address issues related to HIV and AIDS in an interactive manner.

Centres for Disease Control (CDC) formed a partnership with UJ to provide training on evidence-based prevention programmes for healthcare professionals and will support UJ in the rollout of the Positive Health, Dignity and Prevention for PLHIV in 2013.

A regional forum has been established between HIV Centres at UJ, Wits, UFS, CUT, VUT, North-West University (NWU) and the Tshwane University of Technology (TUT). The purpose is to strengthen regional collaboration between HEIs and derive best practices.
