

Toyota South Africa Motors

Bursary Opportunity 2022

StudyTrust on behalf of TSAM invites talented and high-performing students to apply for prestigious bursary opportunities that might lead to positions in a Toyota graduate development program.

Minimum criteria:

South African citizen; Strong academic and leadership potential; A minimum result of 75% for Mathematics and English in Matric; An overall average of 65% and above at university so far.

<https://studytrust.org.za/toyota/>

Bursaries are available to undergraduate and Honours/PGD students pursuing full-time degrees with any of the following specialisations:

Analytics
Human Resources Management
Marketing Management
Accounting (Non-CA)
Computer Science
Financial Management
Information Systems
Engineering (Computer, Chemical, Industrial, Electrical, Mechanical, Mechatronics)

Apply online by completing your profile on the Xhuma platform:

<http://studytrust.org.za/bursary-applications/>

Closing date:
30 September 2021

