Postgraduate Diploma in Drafting and Interpretation of Contracts

Centre for Continuing Education Programmes

FACULTY OF LAW

The Future
Reimagined

The Diploma

- The programme is presented over one year on a part-time basis.
- The programme in Drafting and Interpretation of Contracts consists of four modules that investigate the legal framework within which contracts are drafted and interpreted. The programme will also deal with the relationship between the drafting and interpretation of various other kinds of legal documents, such as wills, rules and regulations, etc.
- The purpose of the programme is to provide learners with additional advanced knowledge and reflective understanding of the way in which legal texts are prepared and interpreted. The programme is designed to enhance the basic levels of knowledge and skills obtained by learners in their undergraduate studies, by enabling them to apply their knowledge and skills to legal documentation and projects that seek to develop a more refined understanding of the preparation and interpretation of various legal documents. Students will be kept abreast of the latest legal developments.
- Note that this Postgraduate diploma does not articulate to any further qualification.

The lectures will be presented from March.

NB: Attendance of the workshops are compulsory.

Examination: October / November.

Admission Requirements

Persons holding either an LLB or Bachelor's degree. In the case of the latter, the successful completion of a module in the Law of Contract, Commercial Law or Business Law is required.

Programme Presenters

The programme will be presented by Prof Eesa Fredericks (Programme Leader).

■ Programme Content

The content of the programme will suit both lawyers and non-lawyers who are involved with the negotiation, drafting and administration of contracts. To ensure that non-lawyers will be able to follow discussions, some time will be spent explaining basic principles and concepts. Lawyers may also benefit from refreshment of their knowledge of the basic principles and concepts and how they have an impact on the drafting and interpretation of contracts.

■ Basic Interpretation Theory

To develop competencies and practical and conceptual skills in respect of the theoretical basis for the interpretation and drafting of contracts.

■ Interpretation Of Contracts

To develop competencies and practical and conceptual skills in respect of the interpretation of contracts.

Drafting of Contracts

To develop competencies and practical and conceptual skills in respect of the drafting of contracts.

Basic English Drafting Skills

To develop competencies and practical and conceptual skills in respect of the interaction between law and language.

Other Topics

Current matters and problems that occur from time to time in respect of the drafting and interpretation of contracts will be included in the programme to ensure that students are given training that is relevant and up to date.
