

PROGRAMME

ZIF RESEARCH GROUP

THE EPISTEMOLOGY OF EVIDENCE-BASED POLICY: HOW PHILOSOPHY CAN FACILITATE THE SCIENCE-POLICY INTERFACE

ZIF RESEARCH GROUP WORKSHOP II

Epistemic standards of due care

Convenors: Dr. Anne Schwenkenbecher (Murdoch University, AUS) Dr. Remco Heesen (University of Western Australia, AUS) Prof. Chad Hewitt (Lincoln University, NZ)

Wednesday - 28 June 2023

09:00 - 09:15 Welcome and introduction by the Research Group (Plenary Hall)

09:15 - 10:45 Talks and Q&A (Plenary Hall)

Sonja Blum (Bielefeld University, Germany): To the Rescue? The Use of Evidence in Crisis Policymaking – Empirical Insights and some Normative Considerations

Katie Woolaston (Queensland University of Technology, Australia): Understanding of Policy Conservation Sciences Research Communications (response by Jennifer Finn, Queensland University of Technology, Australia)

10:45 – 11:15 Coffee break (ZiF Cafeteria)

11:15 – 12:45 Talks and Q&A (Plenary Hall)

Olanike K. Adeyemo (University of Ibadan, Nigeria): Food System Transformation in Africa: Challenges and Opportunities at the Science – Policy – Society Interface

Rose N. Oronje (African Institute for Development Policy, Kenya): Evidence Use in Public Health and Development Policy.

12:45 – 14:00 Lunch at the ZiF (ZiF Cafeteria)

14:00 – 15:30 Talks and Q&A (Plenary Hall)

Hannah Rubin (Missouri University, US): How Knowledge Brokers Shape the Evidence-Based Policy Landscape: An Agent-Based Model

Säde Hormio (University of Helsinki, Finland): Towards an account of responsible modelling in economics.

15.30 - 16.00	Coffee break (ZiF Cafeteria)
16:00 – 16:45	Talks and Q&A (Plenary Hall): Folorunso Oludayo Fasina (FAO, Kenya): Epistemic Obligations and Due Care in Policies Guiding Biosecurity, Epidemic Preparedness and Pandemic Response
16:45 – 17:00	Denis Naughten (Inter-Parliamentary Union Working Group on Science & Technology, Ireland): Relationship between Science and Parliaments – why engage with parliament?
17:00 – 18:00	Drinks and reception
18:30	Dinner at the restaurant Wirtshaus 1802 (https://wirtshaus1802.de/)

Thursday - 29 June 2023

09:00 – 10:30	Talks and Q&A (Plenary Hall): Donal Khosrowi (Leibniz University Hannover): Producing and Using Evidence for Policy, Responsibly Anne Schwenkenbecher (Murdoch University, Australia)/Veli Mitova (University of Johannesburg, South Africa): How Evidence-Based Policy has to mean Ethics-Based Policy (Paper presentation and response; response by Dunja Seselja (Ruhr University Bochum))
10:30 – 11:00	Coffee break (ZiF Cafeteria)
11:00 – 12:30	Talks and Q&A (Plenary Hall) Dinithi Bowatte (Massey University, New Zealand): Methodological Due Care: considering epistemic responsibilities in an infectious disease research methodology Temitope Sogbanmu (University of Lagos, Nigeria): Knowledge Demand and Supply in Evidence-Based Policy
12.30 – 14.00	Lunch at ZiF (ZiF Cafeteria)
14:00 – 15:30	Maru Mormina (University of Oxford, United Kingdom): Following which science? Epistemic injustice at the science-policy nexus during the Covid-19 pandemic. Saana Jukola (University of Twente, Netherlands): Epistemology and ethics of assessing causal claims in nutrition science and policy
15:30 – 16:00	Coffee break (ZiF Cafeteria)
16:00 – 16:45	Salome Bukachi (University of Nairobi, Kenya): The Epistemology of Evidence- based policy in One Health
16:45 - 17:00	Summary and closing
17:00 - 18:00	Drinks reception
18:30	Dinner at the ZiF Cafeteria (Catering by Numa)