NRF GENERAL SCHOLARSHIPS FOR HONOURS STUDENTS IN 2023

The DSI/NRF/Newton Fund Trilateral Research Chair in Transformative Innovation, the 4th Industrial Revolution, and Sustainable Development (UJ-TRCTI) at the University of Johannesburg, South Africa would like to express our availability to supervise two full-time Honours candidates for 2023. The UJ-TRCTI will provide application motivation support to high-accomplished students. The NRF honours full bursaries cover fees. Bursary holders will join a dynamic research community led by Prof Erika Kraemer-Mbula.

About TRCTI

The Trilateral Chair is a prestigious research programme co-funded by the South African Department of Science and Innovation and administered by the National Research Foundation and the British Council. The Research Chair is a partnership between the University of Johannesburg, the University of Sussex (UK), and the African Centre for Technology Studies \(ACTS\) in Kenya. The Chair is formed by dynamic international researchers and engages in cutting-edge research.

Eligibility

- The NRF minimum academic requirement for postgraduate funding is 65%.
- The entry age requirement is 28, 30 and 32 years or younger.
- Must be full-time honours students (students cannot be in full-time employment) in 2023.
- Must be registered in any of the honours programmes offered in the School of Economics at UJ in 2023.
- The honours research project must be supervised or co-supervised by Prof Erika Kraemer-Mbula and/or other members of the UJ-TRCTI team and must be linked to the broad field of Transformative Innovation, the 4IR and Sustainable Development.
