COLLEGE OF BUSINESS
AND ECONOMICS

Appointment to ISQOLS Board of Directors

Prof Talita Greyling, Associate Professor from the School of Economics in the College of Business and Economics at UJ was appointed as the Vice-President (membership) of the ISQOLS Board of Directors.

ISQOLS is the International Society for Quality-of-Life Studies and was established in 1995 with its headquarters in Phoenix Arizona. The Society promotes and encourages research in the field of quality-of-life (QOL), happiness, and wellbeing studies.

"In the last 20 years, ISQOLS has become a globally-recognized professional organization, with its own publications, journals, conferences, and identity. ISQOLS' mission focuses on creating a paradigm shift within traditional academic disciplines and to transform "Quality-of-Life" studies into an academic discipline in its own right. Their goal is to establish academic degree programmes, departments, and schools within institutions of higher education worldwide, all focused on the science of well-being. The ultimate goal is to help with the creation, dissemination, and utilization of knowledge of the science of wellbeing across all walks of life". Read more: https://isqols.org

Prof Talita is also the Co-editor of the Journal of Happiness Studies (JOHS) and of the Applied Research in Quality of Life (ARQOL)
