

A book symposium with Karen Frost-Arnold

Who Should We Be Online: A Social Epistemology of the Internet (forthcoming OUP)

12 August 2022

In person (by invitation): Regeneration Room, Madibeng, Auckland Park Campus

On Teams: Register here

Programme

SAST=GMT+2
10:00–11:30	Keynote: Karen Frost-Arnold Who Should We Be Online?
11:30–11:45	Coffee
11:45–12:45	Abe Tobi (ACEPS) and Daniel Barbarrusa (Sevilla) Chapter 2: Moderators
12:45–14:00	Lunch
14:00–15:00	Andrew (Akanimo) Akpan and Caitlin Rybko (ACEPS) Chapter 3: Imposters & Tricksters
15:00–16:00	Glenn Anderau (Zürich) and Daniel Barbarrusa (Sevilla) Chapter 4: Fakers
16:00–16.30	Coffee
16:30–17:30	Aisha Kadiri (École Normale Supérieure) Chapter 5: Lurkers

Organisers: Abraham Tobi, Caitlin Rybko, David Scholtz

Convener: Veli Mitova

