

INVITATION | PUBLIC SEMINAR

The Department of Finance and Investment Management in the College of Business and Economics will be hosting an interactive discussion with Ms. Muvhango Lukhaimane, the Pension Funds Adjudicator. The Pension Funds Adjudicator's Office is a specialist tribunal established under the authority of the Minister of Finance. One of its primary objectives is to actively resolve complaints in terms of the Pension Funds Act and its attendant directives and guidelines, in so doing upholding the integrity of both the retirement fund industry and protecting the interests of retirement fund members.

Topic: South Africa's Pension Funds Adjudicator – Some Insights

DATE: 13 October 2022

TIME: 12:00 – 14:00

VENUE: 5th Floor, Nadine Gordimer Auditorium, UJ Auckland Park Kingsway Campus Library

Zoom link: <https://zoom.us/j/98922875050#success>

RSVP: <https://forms.gle/Zn2XKXGgUiBCS5gG7>

by 3 October 2022 at 12:00.

(Only 60 seats are available for the in-person venue)

Bio: Miss Muvhango Lukhaimane commenced her responsibilities as Deputy Pension Funds Adjudicator on 1 June 2012 and was appointed Pension Funds Adjudicator on 1 July 2013.

She acquired first-hand experience and expertise in pension fund matters as research consultant and legal advisor at Sanlam Employee Benefits and Liberty Personal Benefits. She was also Principal Officer of the Eskom Pension and Provident Fund. She gained strategic planning and organisational skills during her stint in various executive management roles within the South African Domestic Intelligence Services.

DFIM
DEPARTMENT OF
FINANCE AND INVESTMENT
MANAGEMENT

