

Biography:

Dr Glen Paton is a full-time lecturer at the University of Johannesburg in the Chiropractic Department. He qualified in 2013 from the University of Johannesburg, thereafter, he has worked in a well-known sports-based chiropractic clinic in the Northern amongst others. In 2016 he attained his Internationally Certified Chiropractic Sports Practitioner (ICCSF) qualification through the International Federation of Sports Chiropractic. In 2019, he completed the upgrade to the ICCSP and received his International Certificate in Sports Chiropractic (ICSC) and was the 4th chiropractor in world to be awarded it. Lastly, he completed a PhD in clinical anatomy through the University of Cape Town in 2021.