COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS

Prof Jahed appointed to Think20 (T20) South Africa Task Force One

The College of Business and Economics leadership proudly announces and congratulates Professor Mohamed Jahed on his appointment as Co-chair of the T20 South Africa Taskforce One on Trade and Investment.

The Institute for Global Dialogue (IGD), associated with UNISA, the South African Institute of International Affairs (SAIIA) and the University of Johannesburg (Institute for Pan-African Thought and Conversation) in their capacity as the Convenors of the Think20 (T20) South Africa invited him to co-chair the Task Force one on Trade and Investment.

The Think 20 (T20) is an official engagement group of the G20 and is an established network of research institutes, think tanks and eminent academics from G20 member countries and further afield working on G20-related themes and processes.

Prof Jahed holds a position in the School of Public Management, Governance and Public Policy in the College of Business and Economics, University of Johannesburg. He has worked in the public sector at senior management level, consulted to both the public and private sectors, as well as international organisations. Jahed has served on various boards.
